

Home buying done right starts with LendRIGHT™. We represent the top 3% of community lenders in the American mortgage industry. We carry the LendRIGHT seal because we are leaders who work with you so that you understand your options and can make good choices.

We know that the RIGHT way to do business is to put your needs first. We believe in:

Relationships – working with you to identify the right loan

Information – sharing what we know to help you understand your options

Guidance – providing advice to help you make good choices

Honesty – communicating and responding to your needs in an open manner

Trust – working to take care of the details to help you close on time

So when you're ready to finance your first home, your second home or refinance your current home, look for a LendRIGHT lender. Committed to doing it right. Every day. For you.
